Dr. Francis Fisher, Principal

MAIN OFFICE

From behind the tall desk in the Main Office come all the rules, standards, and procedures of B.H.S. With Dr. Francis Fisher as principal, this thrice divided school is run efficiently with the help of the secretaries and office aides. The school year of 1969-1970 brought about a major change concerning the activity period. For the first time the students had a large group instruction period which enabled them to have a more rounded education by exposure to more expert information in their fields of study.

An invaluable asset to the Main Office is Mr. Paul Crosby who works in conjunction with the guidance counselors from Alt, Brawn, and Buckley. College catalogues, admissions representatives, and career information are imperative for the seniors in planning their future. Mr. Crosby and his assistants help the students to make major college and career decisions.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

New teachers have been added to the language department, which is under the direction of Miss Elsie Watters. One of the new teachers, Miss Maistrellis, teaches French and another is Miss Wagner, who teaches German and biology. An exchange teacher from Peru, Miss Gonzales, has joined the staff. The language department has taken part in the large group instruction program offered at Beverly High School. Another very important part of the language department is the Language Lab. Some students have participated in outside activities sponsored by the language department, including French movies and plays.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

This year's English department, under the direction of Miss Frances Trowt, boasted several interesting and modern methods towards the teaching of English. The large group instruction classes, followed by small group instruction and independent study, gave students the opportunity to witness lectures on various topics given by guest speakers and subject teachers. The Developmental Reading course, offered to any student volunteer, was designed to help improve reading skills. New approaches toward literature included an anthology relating both music and art to particular literary periods, sound film strips about authors, and a paper back series involving diverse ethnic groups.

Teachers Rotated

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

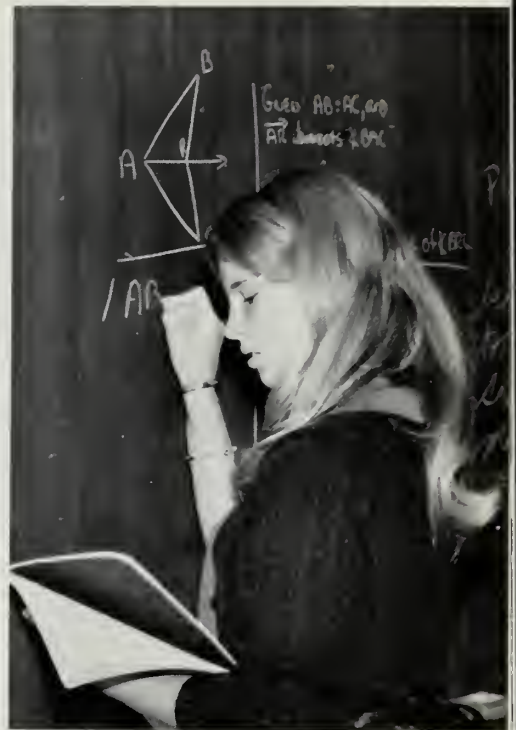

Many new changes have occurred in the science department this year. Teacher rotation, in which the students acquire a new teacher each quarter, and team teaching are among the many innovations. Mr. Robert Michel, Chairman, stated that possible new courses, such as research science and advanced science for grade 12 may be added to the curriculum.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

The Mathematics Department, headed by Mr. Thomas Skiffington, offered many different courses, such as algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and advanced and general mathematics this year. Also, a special independent study math was offered to interested students.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

The history department merged with the English department for the writing of research papers this year. Instead of having two entirely different papers, the seniors chose a history subject and the paper was corrected by the English paper for form and the history teacher for information. The history department also participated in the Large Group Instruction program at Beverly High. Lectures given by department members were on the Monroe Doctrine, Alienated Youth, Art of the Renaissance, Alcoholism, Criminology, and Drugs, and the Critique of Franklin Roosevelt's Domestic Policy.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Education provides vocational training to students to enable them to secure positions after graduation, and also as a foundation for further education. This year, the Business Department incorporated several innovations into the program. Tapes were used in teaching the typewriter keyboard; data processing theory was offered as a part of several courses. The Work-Study class utilized the television studio to tape a presentation related to work experience.

Mr. Francis LeBlanc taught lettering and architectural drafting to interested students in his mechanical drawing classes. Miss Francis Niebergall and Mrs. Mary Mead instructed students in jewelry-making, crafts, commercial and general art.

These students made use of the Reader's Guide and card catalogue in finding books, magazines, and periodicals relevant to their course of study. Also, Large Group Instruction participants experimented with the idea of having two class sections meet in the library together. College catalogues were shelved in the library and were available to interested students for a four-week loan period.

Mr. Daniel Shea, instructor, devoted many hours of his time to help students through classroom instruction and driving experience.

ALT HOUSE

With help from Mrs. Rosemary Carnevale, secretary of Alt House, Mr. George Taylor, housemaster, Mr. Philip Kendrick and Mr. Ralph Lizio, guidance counselors, and the teachers tried to motivate students to study harder. Mr. Kendrick and Mr. Lizio began early in the year to work with under — graduates in planning their courses for the next year. Special attention was given to those students who were absent a great deal. A tutoring program, composed of interested and capable students, helped students with their courses. Mr. Taylor, Mr. Kendrick, and Mr. Lizio aided the students in choosing schools for further education.

Working with the help of the office aides, Mr. Harland Carter saw to it that Brown House was kept running smoothly and efficiently. In the guidance department, Miss Rose Broncato and Mr. David Smith aided the students in submitting college applications and in solving the many problems which usually arise in the course of the year. Also, this year, the Brown House Council undertook the responsibility of adopting a foster child, Andres Perez of Ecuador. A benefit concert was held to provide the necessary $192.00 to support Andres for one year. Brown House welcomed to its staff Miss Jacqueline Rheault as secretary to Mr. Harland Carter.

Beverly High's track team sprinted its way to victory many times this season, ending with a record of six wins and one loss. Captain Blake Whitaker remained undefeated, and Paul Chalifour finished as top scorer. Beverly piled up points early in the meets and ended with tremendous victories. The tracksters achieved a victory with their depth and balance over Boston College High, previously undefeated for two years. Their one loss was to Andover, the Class B champions, by a narrow margin. Clutch performances pleased Coach Fred Hammond throughout the season.

Basketball
1970

Although this year's cagers had a disappointing win and loss record, spirit and individual performances were at a high peak. Captain Bill Sakamoto led all other players in scoring. Inconsistency of play was the major handicap of the basketball team this season.

The downfall of the hoopsters came during the second halves of the games, and defeat was in the last minutes. A jinx seemed to be over the boys this year, but next year's team proved to be promising.

Girls' Basketball

The girls' basketball team almost had an undefeated season. They lost their last game by a very slim margin. The girls played two games with each team listed below except Malden, which forfeited because of unqualified players. Co-captains N. Patterson and K. The BEVERLEGA staff began last spring to prepare the yearbook for June. The staff is composed of six committees each of which has a specific job. First, the layout committee drew the pages, concentrating on form, spacing, and balance. After finding out what was needed for pictures, the photography committee organized and planned group shots and candid shots of different activities, the faculty, and students. When the layouts were completed and the pictures taken, the copy committee began identifying pictures, sending out questionnaires and writing copy for each section. Advertising, subscription, and typing committees were formed to help the BEVERLEGA staff. The advertising committee went to many business establishments to collect ads to help finance the yearbook. The subscription committee took orders for BEVERLEGA and the typing committee aided the copy committee.

MOTORCYCLE CLUB

The aim of the Motorcycle Club, as cited by its president Glenn Cormier, is to improve the impression that the general public has of motorcycle riders. The club has a membership of approximately thirty and is open to anyone, motorcycle owner or not. In the spring and summer of 1970 the club plans many races and hill climbs.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club, sponsored by Mrs. Mary Lou Mital, had a membership of about one hundred this year. They met in the cafeteria every Wednesday to make plans to attend all home games and as many away games as possible. Mrs. Mital listed as the aims and objectives of the club: to promote school spirit, to create unity between the classes, to support the school in all activities, to increase loyalty, to form a strong club to carry on in future years, and to encourage students to attend the games.

CLASS OF 1970

This year's senior class accomplished two major achievements. With class advisers Mr. Richard Batchelder and Mrs. Marilyn Kruger, the class voted to hold a dinner dance at the Holiday Inn in Peabody, Massachusetts to replace the Senior Reception traditionally held in the school cafeteria on Friday evening following graduation. The change in plans was the result of a clear-cut decision on the part of the students, by a vote of 453 to 46. A second achievement was the approval of a new dress code by the school committee for the winter months, December 1, 1969, through March 31, 1970. The code allowed the girls to wear slacks and culottes during this period. The code stated that "Clothing should be safe, clean, neat, and decent."

And in the End

"You and I have memories . . .

that stretches out ahead."

Lennon-McCartney

Time it was
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

— Paul Simon

And remember Folks —

When you're out at night

And on your bike

Wear white!
